OFFICIAL PAPER OF THE CITY.

FROM OUR NEW YORK CORRESPONDENT.

NEW YORK, January 21 1852

Not in thirty years have we had such continuously cold weather and such old fashioned snows as we are now shivering under The Rail Roads in all directions are irregular in their service by reason of the snow drifts, and our city is clothed in a mantle of white, which does not keep warm though very ample Last night was the coldest of the season Even at 9 o'clock this morning the thermometer was two degrees below zero, or 34 degrees below the freezing point Yet all night long the sleigh bells were sounding and the shouts of revellers whom nose severity of cold seemed equal to keeping at home There is while I write no relaxation of the cold, altho' the wind has got round from the North-East to the South-West and the sky is overcast There was a most beautiful exhibition of the Northern Lights last night, which many of the revellers above spoken of mistook for the radiations of some extensive conflagration The North was light with a delicate apple-green radiance, of surpassing beauty and brightness, while the West blushed rose red and ever and anon sent up pencils of various colored lights far into the upper heavens Even the intense cold and the ice that came freely, in consequence, to the beholders' eyes could not withdraw interest from this magnificent display If, as many believe such manifestations are the precursors of a near storm it cannot be gentle in it at all equal in violence the beauty of its forerunner

To day, for an hour or more during the rest of the rides a solid ice bridge existed between this city and Brooklyn, on which thousands crossed but when the ebb began to flow rapidly the ice-work broke up and was carried away to sea— There is intense suffering, necessarily and unavoidably in our city during this Siberian weather and not least among the poorer immigrants who continue to arrive, attenuated by long passages scanty food and more scanty raiment and dies often were the seeds of disease contracted on ship board The Quarantine Officer Dr Doane, is now very ill of the ship fever, contracted in the discharge of his duties and many cases of this disease now themselves among passengers after landing The Commissioners of Emigration have a most responsible and arduous duty to discharge and they do discharge it fearlessly ably and assiduously, but they cannot nevertheless escape the envenomed tooth of slander You know the men or most of them, who compose the Board G C Verplanck, R B Minturn and others like them who without a shilling's interest or compensation spend time and labor in the thankless office, and have for their consolation the curses of those they are seeking to serve and the denunciations of disappointed harpies who see no reduction than put by the vigilance of these commissioners But of the consciousness in their unselfish sacrificing themselves—for this is the truth—for the benefit of a most helpless class of people nothing can deprive them A recent scene at, final in determination, in a depot that in the emergency of the moment, the Commissioners should have—the only one they could get at all—was added to the outcry—but investigation proved that the occurrence was unavoidable and not to be foreseen

The cold which has congealed arms of the Sea and blocked up Rail Roads, seems not without its influence on Congress for they are motionless, so far as progress of efficient business of any sort is concerned After six weeks of session nothing has been done and for night that appears nothing has been put past You will have seen by the reports of the examined Judicial Officers of the United States from the Territory of Utah that the apprehensions I expressed in my letters once months ago, of the bad consequences to result from the acknowledgment of the outlaw population of the Mormons as a separate territory, and the appointment of the chief impostor, Brigham Young as Governor, seem too well founded The Delegate from the Territory, indeed asks a suspension of opinion and contradicts the statements of those officers but in touch as they profess to report what they saw and heard and the delegate does not profess to speak from personal knowledge his appeal cannot have much weight More over I see by the proceedings in Congress yesterday, that the seat of this Delegate himself is alleged to be part and parcel of the general allegiance of Mormon proceedings, and that the question by which he holds his seat are fraudulent There is yet much to come—no good however, I fear—from the untoward recognition of power in Mormon hands

Ere now you will have seen has chosen Napoleon the little for her dictator, by some millions of votes and he at once re-established the Imperial eagle upon the colors of the army thus seeking to share in the glory of that Eagle's fresh victories What a spectacle does France exhibit to a people that really loves and understands Freedom and free institutions! And yet it is hard to see how it could have been otherwise under the circumstances An army of 400 000 men more likely than will—all the leaders of the people seized upon and shut up at once—the press silenced—though even, it uttered prohibited words public Courts, banish or instant deportation to a presidential colony—no meeting of electors to exchange opinions, or concert action, permitted—and no great name upon which the people could rally—how, under such circumstances could Lafayette be heard, or vindicated? Let us suppose it possible, our own people in such a plight and want with all then acknowledged love of Freedom, could they have done?

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE SENTINEL

MADISON January 28th 1852

The Madison Sacred Music Society had the use of the Assembly Hall last evening and filled it with a large audience divided as in the good old times, choir on one side and gentlemen on the other It did the members of the Historical Society good to see the cool tuneful attendants of the gentler sex run upon their charges to their seats on the north side and then rile off to their quarters on the other The Concert was given by some 30 members of the Society led by their teacher Mr Sandford Several favorite quartettes and one solo with chorus were very beautifully executed and gave the highest satisfaction to the audience

The first order of business in my letters should be properly the correction of the journal Accordingly please note that a certain bill, often referred to in the reports as a bill for the change of the name of Gunnel Gunnelson to Gunnel Gunnelson Martin, and that the Senate ordered 1000 and no 1000 copies of the Argus, containing certain reports.

An item of business which occupied much time this morning was the report of the Committee on Legislative Expenditures, on the pay of the officers of the House It proposed to pay the Chief and Assistant Clerks $5 per day, the Enrolling and Engrossing Clerks $3 50, the Sergeant-at-Arms $3 50 and the under officers $2 each Mr Sholes moved to put the Sergeant $4, and on this opposition a debate sprung up, Messrs Vanosdal and Skinner and Richardson taking ground against the increase, and Messrs Hackett, Conger Weil and Botkin in favor The Ayes and Noes on the question rested in its passage by a vote thus divided Ayes 37—17 whigs, 15 democrats 3 free soilers Noes 31—11 whigs, 11 democrats 4 free soilers—pretty evenly divided After several amendments were moved and lost, the reported resolution passed with Mr Sholes' amendment, The Ayes and nays were again called, and resulted as follows Ayes 46—23 whigs, 19 democrats 4 free soilers Noes 19—7 whigs, 10 democrats, 2 free soilers.

The bill introduced this morning by Dr Huebschmann in Senate, to legalize the vote in Milwaukee next Monday, passed that body at once and was brought up by Mr Graham in the Assembly, and was put through under the suspension of the rules.

Gov Farwell returned to the Legislature the joint resolution of sympathy with the Irish Exiles and requesting an opposition by the President in their behalf, with his objections to signing them He expressed his unqualified sympathy with their object but stated that in his opinion that object must be thwarted if certain objectionable words are retained therein The preamble states that Smith O'Brien and his companions are in exile "for no offence except what English law makes such, viz the leaving of their native land" The Governor very properly urges that language like this must necessarily have rather an unfavorable than a favorable effect on the fate of the exiles, if forwarded by the Executive of the State The objections of Governor Farwell must commend themselves to every candid man It is to be hoped that, if the matter comes up again, a more courteous course will be taken and one better calculated to accomplish the object. The Speaker stated that there is no provision of law requiring that joint resolutions should be signed by the Governor before being in full effect although such has previously been the custom Col Botkin stated that all of the Governors had at different times returned such resolutions in the same manner as bills. "We may add" that never was a veto message sent to either body which met with a more general concurrence from the members than this resolution

The Senate keeps along evenly with the House and bills are pushed forward as fast as they are ready The printing is very much behind and delays from that reason will, I fear, prolong the session to a later day than would be agreeable— The office of the State printer is burdened up with vast piles of public documents Bills &c which will probably see the light some of these days

The weather is mild and pleasant and to-day there are appearances of a breaking up Were it not for being pretty well occupied here we should look with more interest for the arrival of our quota of those 10 tons of Eastern mails which are announced as on the way

THE NEW CHARTER.

The vote upon the new Charter is to be taken on Monday next and the result depends altogether upon the degree of effort made by those of our citizens who desire to see a stable efficient and economical city government substituted for the present expensive complicated and inefficient one All who have read the new Charter concede its very great superiority in every respect over the present defective instrument True objections are occasionally made to this or that section but they are of such little moment compared with the importance of adopting the Charter and establishing order and system in the administration of our affairs, that they ought not to be thought of Besides the few trifling flaws or imperfections can be cured by the Legislature but it will reject the instrument outright it may be months or years before we can get another We do not at all doubt that the vote on Monday will be in advance one of the largest general turn out of the electors The interest which our property-holders, tax-payers and business men have in this question ought, at last, to bring them in mass to the Polls, and to prompt them to use the effective means to secure a full vote If those who have the deepest stake in the growth, credit, and welfare of the city, put forth on Monday exertions at all commensurate with the importance of the object, the Charter will be adopted by a very large majority We think it of the first consequence to the interest and character of our city but it should be so, and therefore urge our readers one and all to go to the Polls Monday and vote for the NEW CHARTER

OFFICERS OF THE ASSEMBLY The Commercial in answer to our call for specific items of discharge that "double the usual number of assistants" were employed about the Assembly says —

Our charge is that there are now employed by the Assembly a Sergeant-at-Arms and assistant two Doorkeepers two Messengers, and one Fireman by the Assembly

And adds that heretofore there has been just half the number " The Commercial is wrong first as to the facts The above days been two messengers, a fireman and generally two doorkeepers for the Assembly It is wrong next as to the inference, that the Whigs are responsible for the alleged increase Its own statement, that there are now employed by the Assembly as shows this since the Whigs have not a majority in that body

The Commercial adds, for our special edification

To these the Sentinel would add a special Report at 53 per day

No, Sir, the Sentinel would do nothing of the sort We don't believe that it is the business of the Legislature to provide newspapers with Reporters

☞ The communication of Ex-Governor Dewey to his successor in office and the Legislature giving the history of the $8,018 obtained by him from the General Government and immediately disbursed for account of the State will be found in this morning's paper Gov Dewey accounts satisfactorily for the money but he does not show any authority for the responsibilities assumed by him in the premises nor do we believe that any such authority exists Mr DEWEY was pretty well paid for his trouble, but his fees we think, should have come out of the pockets and mileage of our Senators and Representatives in Congress, who ought to have settled the claim and obtained the money two years ago without the help of a Special Agent

ONE GOOD TURN DESERVES ANOTHER "—The Sun says Gazette says that the first bill passed by the Assembly was "to extend the time for the collection of taxes in Beloit" and denies the Milwaukee Sentinel to "notice" Anything to oblige you friend Gazett and having done so, we now venture to add on our own responsibility that a friend who returned this city two since from a very gone it tour through the State, tells us that the two best looking and busiest towns he saw were Beloit and Janesville As for Beloit's wanting a little time to pay taxes we fancy that want to be pretty universal in this State just now

MINNESOTA LEGISLATURE —This body met at St Paul on the 7 inst On the 8th the House elected John D Ludden, of Marine Speaker and on the following Monday, the other officers were chosen, as follows

A Pierce Chief Clerk J N Gosselin Sergeant-at-Arms George Turnbull Messenger John R Bass Enrolling Clerk and R P Miller Engrossing The Council elected Wm H Forbes President and Henry M Fuller, Secretary — The 15th the two Houses were in session at the Baptist meeting house to receive the Governor's Message The Law of Congress limits the session of the Legislature to sixty days

HOUSES AT MADISON —It will be seen by our Telegraphic report from Madison that the Senate, yesterday, were intent upon making political capital than of manifesting any practical sympathy for the Irish Exiles again passed, by almost a straight party vote, the objectionable resolutions returned for consideration and amendment by the Governor The Assembly on the contrary, pursued the sensible course of dropping the obnoxious resolution and adopting another in its stead

TEMPERANCE MEETING —There will be a meeting of the friends of Temperance on Monday evening next, at 7 o'clock at the Free Congregational Church The object of the meeting is to consider and act upon the matter of getting up petitions to the Legislature for the enactment of the Maine Law

THE WEATHER —A cold, drizzling rain, yesterday added an inch or two to the mud in the streets and on the roads The bottom, however, keeps good, tho' the going is rather heavy A change to cold, with a foot of snow, would be decidedly welcome

For the Deaf and Sympathy for Exiles.

Messrs Editors I hope you will pardon me for troubling you on the present occasion The great storm and show of sympathy and the efforts towards the Irish Exiles, will be a vexation There is a perfect stream of sympathy flowing just now through the Northern and Western States towards the Irish Exiles, Smith O'Brian and his co-patriots. (I fear that it is all an electioneering movement) I hope the sympathizers of the Citizens of the United States are not confined to the Irish Exiles only but that they extend to the Exiles of other countries

Now sir I am a Welshman and there are three of my countrymen in exile, years before O Brien and his co-patriots, to the same country and for the same offence namely Frost Williams and Jones I would invoke a little of your sympathies towards my countrymen in their exile— There is between two and three hundred thousand Welshmen residing in both U S, and as many of their descendants and I would hope, conducting themselves as good citizens will deserving your sympathies

Respectfully yours
PLENTEN ALLYD

Foreign Relations and Land Warrants.

IN THE U S SENATE Jan 20

Mr Seward laid the following on the table, intending to offer them as amendments to Mr Clarke's joint resolutions introduced yesterday —

Strike out all after the 2nd resolution and insert as substitute —

Resolved That while the United States must consider it one of the exigencies of events, both in recognising governments de facto as in other matters that they must leave the decision by non-intervention wherein a majority of the people of a foreign nation is deemed the consent of the people, by inscription or else the armed intervention of foreign States or Nations

Resolved That considering that the people of Hungary in the exercise of the right secured to them by the laws of nations and sanctioned by the national independence and political constitutions they established themselves as a government by their own voluntary act ma successfully maintained it against all opposition by parties interested in the question that the Emperor of Russia without just or lawful right, invaded Hungary and by fraud and armed force subverted the national independence and political constitutions they established and thereby reduced that country to the condition of a province ruled by a foreign and absolute power—the United States in defence of their own institutions and of the common interests of mankind do solemnly protest against the conduct of Russia in but recently having with and by unnecessary intervention of the Law of nations and the United States do further declare that they will not hereafter be indifferent to similar acts of our usual injustice oppression, and usurpation, whenever or wherever they may occur

The amendments were ordered to be printed

Mr Cass laid on the table the following resolution to be printed

Resolved That while the people of the United States sympathize with all nations who are striving to establish their governments yet they recognize the great principle of the law of nations which insures to each of them the right to manage its own internal affairs in its own way and to establish alter or abolish its government as it pleases, without the intervention or control of any power and they have not seen or could they consistently with that principle discern the violation of this principle of national independence

The joint resolution nothing had already assignable, was then taken up

Mr Walker's amendment originating land to every actual settler after 5 years of occupancy, in quantities not exceeding 160 acres free of charges was debated, and was then rejected—yeas 23 nays 33—as follows —

Yeas—Messrs Bridge of Wis Douglas Gwin Seward Sumner Wade Walker and Whitcomb —8

Nays—Messrs Atchison Badger Pearce Bell Berrien, Borland Bradbury Bright Brodhead Clark, Clemens Davis Dawson Dodge of Iowa Felch, Foot, Gwin Hamlin Houston Hunter Jones of Iowa Jones of Tenn Jones Mallory, Mc Kean Mangum Miller Morris Rusk Sebastian, Smith Spruance Stockton, Underwood and Upham —35

Mr Walker moved as an amendment that no individual should locate more than one warrant which was rejected

Mr Walker moved an amendment that no warrant shall be located within 6 miles of any proposed Railroad unless for purposes of actual settlement, to be ascertained by oath of party locating This was rejected

Mr Gwin offered an amendment allowing pauses occupying the public lands in California to pay for the same in warrants Lost

The joint resolution was then ordered to be engrossed—yeas 35 nays 3—Messrs Gwin Wade and Walker voting in the negative

In Senate then after a short Executive session adjourned

VETO MESSAGE.—We subjoin the message of Governor Farwell to the Assembly returning with his objections the resolutions invoking our Government to interpose in behalf of the Irish Exiles The Assembly unanimously approved of the Governor's veto message, and we think that it must be satisfactory even to our envious neighbor of the Commercial —

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Madison, Jan 27, 1852

To the Senate and assembly —

I have deemed it my duty to return the joint resolutions of the Senate and Assembly of the 24th inst expressing sympathy on behalf of the people of this State for Smith O'Brien and his associates in exile, with my objections to compliance with the request contained in said resolutions to forward a copy of the same to the President of the U S

I cannot but hope, that the language and import of the Preamble of said resolutions were not duly and sufficiently considered by the Senate and Assembly before the passage of the same and if forwarded in their present form to the President and they are by him presented to the authorities of Great Britain as would be necessary to give effect to this action of the legislature it would have a tendency to injure rather than promote the object proposed

The language of said Preamble in my opinion objectionable in the following — with no desire to dishonor to the manner except that En lish law makes such, (that is the leaving of their native land")

It is not only not true that English law makes the leaving of their native land "a State and dishonor upon the names of Irish Exiles and such a charge, evinces a state of feeling against England that would have in effect (if otherwise than to advance the truly humane purposes of the resolutions

I most fully and warmly sympathize with the object contemplated and would much regret if anything should have a tendency to impede it

Believing that the language of these resolutions was not sufficiently advised, and inasmuch fully noted I return them for your further consideration"

A GOOD INDICATION —Mr Lawrence, of this village heads the Assembly bank committee We have good reason for believing that the committee otherwise is judiciously selected and that the law reported by it will be well considered and wisely framed Every consideration of justice and policy requires that the bill-holder should be amply secure from loss in any contingency and that every species of security of a liquid character or not immediately convertible into money, should be uncompromisingly excluded We have faith the present committee will report such a law, and it behooves every friend of a banking system to stand firmly by it should such be the character of the bill reported.—Janesville Gazette

THE TERRITORIAL SCRIP FUND.

Gov Farwell on Tuesday presented the following message relating to this fund which was referred to the committee on State Affairs

I have also the honor to present to your consideration a letter from his Excellency, Nelson Dewey, tendering to me in relation to the settlement and adjustment of the claims of this State, as successor of the right of the late Territory of Wisconsin against the United States for Territorial Scrip and bonds issued in the years 1841 and 1842,

LEONARD J FARWELL

Madison Jan 22 1852

MADISON January 7th 1852

To Leonard J Farwell Governor of the State of Wisconsin

Upon terminating my official connection with the government of this State I have deemed it proper to communicate through you my successor in office such legislature the efforts made by this Department and that results in procuring a settlement and adjustment of the claim of this State as successor to the rights of the late Territory of Wisconsin against the United States, for Territorial scrip and bonds issued in the years 1841 and 1842 for legislative expenses of the Territory which should have been paid and discharged by the Treasury Department of the United States but in fact were paid and discharged by the Territory and Institutions Territorial and State funds thereby constituting the original bonds so paid a just debt and claim due from the United States to the Territory of Wisconsin and to the State as successor to the rights of the Territory in amount from six to ten thousand dollars

The State legislature at its first session in June 1848 appointed Mason C Darling one of the then Representatives in Congress to procure the settlement and payment of this claim by the United States M Darling presented it to the Treasury Department at Washington and used his best endeavors to effect a settlement and the payment of the scrip and bonds during the following session of Congress but without success, both in 1847 Gov Dodge the successor of M Darling who was familiar with the whole history of the issuing of these bonds and scrip and the justness of this debt due the State was equally impressed with the further precaution for adjustment at the Treasury Department— Governor Dodge had this matter in charge during two sessions of Congress and urged upon the Treasury Department the justness and that it ought to be paid by the State

His efforts however, were also unsuccessful in July this year, Washington in March last, the scrip and bonds were returned to him by the 1st Auditor of the Treasury Department under his instruction to be presented to the Executive Department of this State The Auditor also directed a letter to the Governor to which I would refer for a statement that this claim could not be paid until the accounts of Mr Flood one of the Commissioners of Territory were settled as he had some vouchers which been furnished with limited time and the Governor and Secretary of the Territory were called upon for information which the information could be obtained

This decision of the Auditor of the Treasury Department I soon learned in effect the object and nature and purport of this claim, and that I alone was to be the agent for the settlement of the same with the Treasury Department and that I was to be furnished with the scrip and bonds when the settlement was made and the State or Territory, and all expenses attending them which I was compelled to advance from my own private funds

The first time that English law makes the leaving of their native land "a State and dishonor upon the names of Irish Exiles and such a charge, evinces a state of feeling against England that would have in effect (if otherwise than to advance the truly humane purposes of the resolutions

I most fully and warmly sympathize with the object contemplated and would much regret if anything should have a tendency to impede it

Believing that the language of these resolutions was not sufficiently advised, and inasmuch fully noted I return them for your further consideration"

Fatal Accident.

A stranger in the city, name unknown was yesterday morning passing along the sidewalk before Wells & Co's Building on Chy street a little above Montgomery, when a stove pipe on the roof with a number of bricks attached to coming loosened by the jolting of the day on the above story toppled over and fell upon the head of the unfortunate man crushing his skull in a horrid manner He fell instantly dead without uttering a word or making a movement We were informed that the brick work which fell was entirely unconnected with the chimney or flue of the stove pipe was recently put on the chimney top adjoining the above story and brick laid around it in a loose and ugly manner The wind blowing strongly at the time they were busily employed and hence the unfortunate accident Neither the chimney nor stove pipe was put up by Messrs Barrett & Sherwin as they informed us that all the work on their premises is done in a substantial manner The mangled body of the deceased was taken to the Monument Engine House where Justice Shephard held an inquest upon it No one however, could recognize the unfortunate man though it is supposed that he is a man who has come down on the Confidence on Wednesday night He appears to be about that of five feet eleven inches high and well-made, has a heavy head covered with brown and blue wool on under side hers dark whiskers reddish brown jacket and straw hat The jury returned the following verdict

We the jurors and this the deceased, whose name to us is unknown, came to his death by the accidental falling of a brick or brick and stovepipe from the house known as Wells & Co's Building, at the corner of Clyy and Montgomery streets And we the jurors also believe the owners of occupants guilty of great carelessness in leaving the bricks in the position that they must have been to have caused the accident

HIRMAN PEARSONS Foreman

The body of the deceased is at the Monument Engine Co's house on Port mouth Square and will remain there until 1 o'clock p m to-day for recognition if any person should recognize it he is requested to give information to Justice Shephard at his office on the Square —Alta California, Dec 15

THE MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT YESTERDAY —The name of the unfortunate man who came to so sudden and dreadful an end yesterday by the falling of bricks from the top of Wells & Co's building has been ascertained to be George M Lockwood last from Moquelumne Hill and formerly from Wisconsin He was recognized by the proprietor of the Bro ker Jonathan House, in Commercial Street, who had put up on his arrival at this city on Wednesday night He was in very bad health and had been unfortunate in the mines and was on his way to San Jose to obtain, if possible some employment about the Legislature Justice Shephard on being apprised of these facts repaired to the room of the deceased and in his valise found a letter of introduction and recommendation dated Moquelumne Dec 26th 1851 from H P Grant to Gordon Cowell to Clara and another dated December 6th from W S D Grant to Capt Walton and Dr Cather of San Jose These letters speak in high terms of the deceased as a worthy member of the Order of Odd Fellows The most melancholy circumstance about this sad affair is the fact that he has a family at home as two letters were found in his valise from his wife dated Brookfield June 16th and August 18th and postmarked Milwaukee and Waukesha, Wisconsin —Ib

The Maine Liquor Law.

Some weeks since we called the attention of the public to the fact that efforts would be made this winter to induce the Legislature of Wisconsin to enact a liquor law similar in its details to that now in force in the state of Maine The Madison papers show that the effort has already been commenced Petition after petition is, almost daily, presented in our halls, and some of them are said to be numerously signed In fact, judging from remarks which we have read in various papers, and the sentiments uttered by the parties seeking the enactment of the law, we are inclined to think there is a good chance for success

There is a heavy responsibility resting upon the Legislature, and we are not disposed to believe them, or any person of them to it by any advisory remark which might be considered reflection of public sentiment in this quarter They must judge and act for themselves But there is also some responsibility resting upon the public press and we are willing to meet and bear our share of it

We think that either the sale of all intoxicating drinks should be stopped, or the trade in them left free

No liquor law has been enforced since we have been a citizen of Wisconsin now over six years— The law of the last session has not in the least put a stop to the free sale and use of ardent spirits and its only use it has been to open a impunity, by taking the responsibility from some, who were disposed honorably to comply with its provisions, while others who have utterly disregarded it, have been allowed, unmolested to proceed in the business as if no such law had been enacted The state has become a party in the traffic by selling privileges—no one has been benefitted, the sale of liquor has not been in the slightest degree curtailed the law has not been impartially enforced and has therefore operated unequally and unjustly

The law ought therefore, to be repealed

The question then occurs, if the law of the last session could not be enforced, can one of the character of the Maine law be sustained and carried into effect We shall not pretend to answer this question, but were we a member of the Legislature we should never vote for it, or any other law, unless we were well satisfied it could be A law which is not enforced is worse than no law, because while it fails to produce the intended effect, it begets contempt for the law making power and lessens the means of government to do good

If the Legislature believe that the Maine Liquor Law would be enforced by the whole duty it would be to enforce it and sustained by the public sentiment of the state, it would be well to pass it But if they believe it could not be enforced, it would be worse than folly to enact it —Democratic Standard

The Legislature.

MADISON, Jan 29

SENATE — A message was received from the Assembly, giving notice of the passage by that body, of several bills and of a resolution declaring the views of the Governor, referring to forwarding the resolution of sympathy for Smith O'Brien & Co as well founded

Mr Wakely presented a petition from N P Rainey and others for the incorporation of the Whitewater Academy also a petition from S Wakely and others for the incorporation of a Cemetery Association at Whitewater

Mr Sharpstein presented a petition for the permanent location of the County Seat of Washington County

Mr Reed presented the account of C M Weber,

Mr Huebschmann presented a communication from the Mayor of the City of Milwaukee on the subject of taxes

BILLS INTRODUCED

By Mr Wakely, a bill to incorporate the Whitewater Academy Also a bill to incorporate the Cemetery Association at Whitewater

By Mr Huebschmann a bill to authorize the levying and collection of certain special taxes in the 2d and 5th wards of the city of Milwaukee which passed

By Mr Dean a bill to authorize the County of Outagamie for Judicial purposes

By Mr Reed, a bill to appropriate to J L Manville the sum therein named

The first resolution in regard to Irish Exiles, returned by the Governor, on account of objection to the wording was taken up and a spirited debate ensued the democratic members insisting that the Executive had no right to return, or veto a resolution of the kind, and they would not justify or sustain him in it. It was finally disposed of by Mr Dean offering a substitute to the new resolution which had passed the Senate, precisely a mdar to the one the Governor objected to, with the exception of the last section requesting the Secretary of State to forward a copy of the resolution to the President, instead of the Governor which was adopted All the Democrats, except Mr Wakely, voting for the substitute, and the Whigs all voting in the negative

This is the first question which has arisen in the Senate which has elicited any warmth of debate and thus offering a good opportunity for the display of the heretofore pent up eloquence of this honorable body it was well improved by Messrs. Sharpstein, Palmer, Alban and others.

New York in Winter.

EXCITING SCENES ON THE RIVER.—In consequence of the extreme cold last night—the thermometer ranging from zero to 5 or 10° below the rivers and the bay became bridged with ice to about four or five inches thickness Ferry boats were, until the turn of the tide almost useless and when they succeeded in getting into the stream it was a matter of uncertainty where they would land The Fulton ferry boat, from Brooklyn at one time landed her passengers at Oliver st at another on a slip at the end of a pier near Maiden Lane while the Staten Island boat was forced to run at Jersey City The firmness of the ice however in some degree compensated the Long Islanders for the ineffectual ferry-boats as hundreds of the young and venturous risked a cold bath and trusted their lives on the ice-bridge About sunrise the scene was exceedingly picturesque Long files of men were seen like pigmies wending carefully across the treacherous bridge, feeling cautiously for "air holes" and marking with devious and avoid suspicious looking places From a dozen points in Brooklyn these streams set forth and before 10 o'clock hundreds of persons had achieved a feat of which they will hereafter boast to their gaping grandchildren—they had actually walked across the East River on the ice At 10 o'clock the tide turned and a strong current set toward Sandy Hook, by the force of which the ice soon began to break up In a short time the whole body of ice in the East River was in motion, except a narrow margin at either shore which was too firmly wedged in with the piers to be started The moving masses were heaved up and broken in every direction by the force of the water and as the cakes of ice were tossed up and again sunk down crushing each other in indescribable confusion, the spectator might almost have fancied himself in Wellington Church in search of Sir John Franklin

But attention was now chiefly directed to the condition of persons who were crossing on the South ferry There were perhaps fifty or fifty on the ice when the mass began to move, most of them made immediate for the New York end and reached the piers before the shore and stream ice separated One old colored woman, old enough to remember the time when Washington dodged cannon from the City to Staten Island on a small but firmer bridge fell into an air hole but was soon hauled out in good as new condition except the bathing Several men who got ashore at Pier No 1, E R, were obliged to jump as much as they knew, to clear the rapidly widening stream between them and terra firma, and three or four of them got ducked in the attempt. There were six persons however, who were quite too late, and were carried down the Bay, three on one field of ice and three on another Their situation became every moment more critical as it was highly probable that the action of the water would soon break up their raft which escape from drowning would be impossible In this dilemma some Whitehall boatmen, whose courage and humanity are proverbial went to their rescue. By patiently following the tortuous channels between fields of ice the boats after long and persistent effort, reached the ice where the men were, fan off in the Bay, near Bedlow's Island and when we left the Battery the last of the voyagers was safely under the stern sheets of one of the boats Hundreds of people had gathered at the Revenue Office and on the Battery, watching in the dome, in the ice and when the men were safe in the boats, a paper was circulated to raise a purse for the daring, to those who had thus risked their own lives to the lives of strangers.

In the North River the ice was hardly so firm, but at 12 o'clock it had not begun to move with the tide The ferry boats cross quite regularly — There were no attempts to cross on foot

The Bay is entirely covered with ice which is apparently firm but there will soon be a current from the Battery toward the Narrows as the ice is not strong enough to withstand the tide West of Bedlow's Island and Governor's it is firm, and the entire population of Communipaw is at home on skates, for it will be remembered that in this primitive and secluded Dutch dorp all the rare old customs of ancient Amsterdam still survive in unfaded purity and not a crow nor a crowbar in all that region is there who will not write her name with his pretty foot, even though she bear the most formidable title ever prefixed by a Van, or a Van

Along the docks on either side the ice is very firm, and the getting of ships into the stream has suddenly become a task for Hercules

The Bay presents a novel and unexpected scene of dreariness There is but one craft—a large ship near Bedlow's Island—to be seen, and the white expanse of ice is bleakly set off by the equally white and cold-looking hills and shores of the Islands and New Jersey

Altogether in the City and out, we have this morning enjoyed the most perfect and real panorama of Winter that we have ever seen in New York

The sleighing to day is perfect and everything that can drive and every thing that will slide is in requisition —New York Daily Tribune, Jan 29

THE GREAT BRITISH QUARTERLIES, AND BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

Important Reduction in the rates of Postage!

LEONARD SCOTT & Co, No 54 Gold st, New York continue to publish the following, Reprints of British periodicals, viz

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conservative)

THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig)

THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free Church)

THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW, (Liberal)

and

BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory)

These Reprints have now been in successful operation in this country for years, and their circulation is constantly increasing, and now will undoubtedly be considerably increased, as they are the cheapest periodicals now published, and they encounter from American periodicals of a similar class and from numerous Reviews and Magazines made up of selections from foreign periodicals. The claim shows clearly the high situation in which they are held by the intelligent reading public and I offer in guarantee that these are to be had of them at a less rate, and will be continued without interruption

All single these works are the highest order of the politest standard literature, and a number of original articles and contents decided to political subjects It is their literary character alone that gives them their chief value, and in that they stand pre-eminent, as the following opinions of their class Blackwood still under the masterly pilotage of Christopher North maintains its celebrity and has a distinguishable attraction from its scholarly Editor and other literary notices of the day, and in point of style and first rate ability, it is pre-eminent among its contemporaries

The Reprints are now printed from the original plates, in a beautiful clear type, on fine white paper, and will be furnished at the following prices, viz

For any one of the four Reviews $3 00 per annum
For any two of the four Reviews, 5 00
For all four of the Reviews 8 00
For Blackwood's Magazine 3 00
For Blackwood and three of the Reviews 9 00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews 10 00

Payments to be made in all cases in advance Money current in the State where invested will be received at par

A discount of 2 per cent from the above prices will be allowed to Clubs ordering four or more copies from any one or more of the above works Thus four copies of Blackwood or of one Review will be sent to one address for $8 four copies of the four Reviews and Blackwood for $30 and so on

REDUCED POSTAGE.

The postage on these Periodicals has, by the late law, been reduced, and the average now is as follows viz

56 SOUTH STREET.	ST. GEORGE'S BUILDINGS.

ARRANGEMENTS FOR 1851.

AS SOON as season for emigration approaches, we beg to acquaint our friends and the public with our Arrangements for the year 1851, and would inform them, that with an increase of business—for which we are grateful—we are placed in possession of greater facilities for conducting the Emigration and Foreign Exchange Business than any other House in the World, and for which—in a great measure—we have to thank a discerning public for their continued patronage.

Since the commencement of last year a large number of magnificent Ships have been added to the various popular lines—for which we are the Agents, and several others are now in course of construction, all of which will be fitted up for passengers in the most superior manner, and commanded by men of long experience.

By the following List of Packets, and their dates of sailing—being six regular packets a month to and from Liverpool—direct to and from London—and two to and from Glasgow—persons sending for their friends, or those proceeding to the "Old Country," will perceive it much to their advantage to make arrangements at our office; and as heretofore, our business in Liverpool will be under the personal superintendence of our Mr. W. TAPSCOTT—whose well known experience in passengers embarking by our line has won for him his pre-eminent reputation among the emigrating public.

In offering our Stoves to the community, we do so with the full assurance that we can supply better articles than can be purchased at any other place, being entirely new patterns, manufactured with care and from the very best materials. The following list of patterns is offered with the confidence that they will give satisfaction in every particular, viz:

THE ECONOMIST

DOUBLE OVEN COOKING STOVE,

(Which received the First Premium at the State Fair, lately held at Janesville,)

Possesses great advantages over every other stove, for plain flues and direct application of heat, being so arranged that one or both ovens can be used at pleasure. It will cook in half the time of any other stove now in use, and with half the fuel, not consuming over four cords of wood in one year.

The TRIUMPH, single oven, takes in long wood, is an excellent stove—one that has been well tested, and given general satisfaction.

The PREMIUM is different in its construction from any other made, in the arrangement of the fire back—acknowledged to be a great improvement.

The JUNO PARLOR is adapted to either wood or coal, being decidedly the neatest arrangement ever offered to the public; it has all the conveniences of the sto ve combined with the beauties of the open grate. It is beautifully ornamented, highly polished, and perfect in every respect—the entire front above and below the grate being opened or closed with three doors, and so arranged that when open they are completely out of sight. It is equally adapted to office as well as parlor.

The RADIATOR is the best coal stove ever got up as a radiator of heat.

Persons purchasing their stoves of us in the event of any of the plates getting broke, can at all times be supplied with extra ones, thus superceding the necessity of throwing away stoves, which many are daily compelled to do in buying Eastern ware.

Those who are in want of an article in our line, will find it to their advantage to give us a call, before purchasing elsewhere, as we are confident that we can give satisfaction in all cases. City references given, where our stoves can be seen in operation. Stoves delivered and set up in any part of the city, free of charge. All orders promptly attended to.

Milwaukee, July 1 1851.

Troy Fire Insurance Company,

TROY, WALWORTH COUNTY, WIS.

CAPITAL $100,000.

The Directors feel grateful to the public for having thus early manifested their approval of said confidence in this Company. After having been in operation ten months, we are able to report as follows:

Whole number of Policies issued,	960
Whole amount of Property insured,	$1,000,000
Whole amount of Cash premium,	9214 37
Whole amount of losses allowed and paid,	371 27
Balance of Cash Premium on hand,	4843 10

IT is gratifying to the Directors to state to the members of this Company, that the business has more than met their expectations, and is rapidly increasing. This unparalleled success in the commencement, and increase of business, show that our plan and management meets with the approval of the public.

The Charter and By-Laws are free from objections, and provide that the risks shall be divided into two distinct departments, and the premium notes in one shall not be liable for losses in the other. The only risks taken in the Farmer's Department are on farm property, detached dwellings, country churches, school houses, tailors' shoemakers', and saddlers' shops. No hazardous risks will be taken in either department, nor more than $2000 in one risk, or in a circle of eight rods.

The company possess both the advantages of the Stock and Mutual plans. Any person insuring may pay once and one-half the regular cash premium in full, without a premium note. Stoves may be added or changed, out-building or detached, to the dwelling, and such additions and repairs made as do not increase the hazard, without notifying the company. The Company will be responsible for the correctness of surveys, which by their Agents. Insurance may take effect on the day the application is made. The Company pays, in case fire, the full amount of damage not exceeding the amount insured, and all matters of difference may be settled by arbitration in the county where the loss occurs.

The rates charged by this company, though low, are based upon the actual results of insuring for the past twenty years, and are found to be sufficient, with prudent management, to pay all losses and expenses without over-resorting to the premium notes. Thus the rates on exposed dwellings and farm property, are a premium not of one per cent, and a cash premium of fifty cents on each $100 for five years.

In publishing our safe, cheap, and popular plan of insurance, we deem it a duty to ourselves and the public to state a few existing facts with the Washington and Montgomery—

The Washington County Mutual commenced in 1836, by collecting thirty cents on $100; in 1846 they first discovered that this was insufficient to pay losses, and raised to 33 cents, and now are collecting 50 cents on each $100; the result of which is, by their report, Jan. 1, 1850, $600 in the treasury, and $1 million at risk, on which they will probably lose two hundred thousand, making their actual cost 191 thousand.

The Montgomery County Mutual is another example of bad management. They have been in operation much longer than the Washington, and their report shows what the Washington is fast coming to. They reported to the Comptroller, Jan. 1, 1850, that their insurance and expense had exceeded their cash receipts twenty-nine thousand dollars, and fifteen thousand dollars claims unsettled, making debts and claims forty-four thousand dollars, and some thirty millions at risk, on which they will probably lose ninety thousand dollars more, making their actual debt one hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars.

The cash premiums now collected by those two companies on what they insure in future will only pay losses on the same, consequently these insurers will not only pay for their insur
